RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

As a parent or guardian, you are the primary religious educator for your child. Your words, actions and relationships convey to your child much of what he or she understands about life and its meaning. Our church program can help you fulfill your mission as a religious educator, but only to the extent of your involvement in it. The more you know about and participate in your child's experience here, the more you can support its goals and lessons in daily life and the more enriching the experience will become for your child.

RIGHTS

1. Program Knowledge. You have the right to know about our philosophy, methodology, and safety/discipline policies. You may direct comments and questions to the Director of Children's Christian Education or to the Children and Family Ministries committee and expect a quick reply.
2. Safety. You have the right to expect adults leading every Sunday School class with care and attention to the needs of every child.
3. Confidentiality. You can expect confidentiality in discussions with any committee members if you share sensitive concerns, which may include your child's special needs or family structure. Discussions of child abuse or suicide cannot be confidential.

4. Involvement. You have the right to be fully involved in helping your child become a morally responsible young adult. Parents are welcome visitors in the classroom at any time. Please introduce yourself to the teacher.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Registration. Parents must register their child(ren). They will tell the teacher of any changes in medical conditions, contact information, or special needs.
2. Supervision. At all times when on church grounds, children must be supervised. When children are not in class, parents/guardians are responsible for their behavior and safety.
3. Pickup. No children in grades 5 or younger will be released from class without a parent.
4. "Drop Off." Children grades 5 and younger may not be dropped off at church. A parent must remain on church grounds at all times in case of medical emergency. If parents wish to designate a specific "church guardian," they may fill out an additional form.

I understand and agree with these terms.
