

THE HOUSE OF HOPE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

I was angry with my friend;
I told my wrath, my wrath did end.
I was angry with my foe;
I told it not – my wrath did grow.

- William Blake

Palm / Passion Sunday | April 14, 2019 10 a.m.

Welcome

House of Hope welcomes all who worship here today. Our caring and active community welcomes you. We extend the hospitality of Christ to all who gather here.

Today's Worship

Our regular Sunday Worship time is 10 a.m., followed by refreshments, fellowship, and educational opportunities. If you have any questions, our greeters or ushers will be glad to help you. We invite you to join us for refreshments, including fair trade coffee, served in the Kirk Parlour following the service.

Professional childcare is provided for infants through PreK from 9:45 a.m.–12:00 p.m. in the east wing.

- Infants and Toddlers | Room 8
- Preschool and PreK | Room 2
- Kindergarten through 6th grade are invited to the east wing following the Baptism.

Children's Bibles for infants through 2nd grade are available in the pews; and children's bulletins and crayons are available at all sanctuary doors. Please return the crayons.

Large print hymnals and bulletins are available. Hearing devices can be signed out from the table in the narthex. Ushers are available for assistance. Please return the hearing device to the table after worship.

Live broadcasts and audio versions of worship services are available at hohchurch.org. Copies of past sermons are available at the church's welcome centers and in the rack across from the Assembly Room.

The single candle near the pulpit is our Peace Candle, lighted each day as a reminder of the ongoing need for our prayers for peace in the world.

The Connect @ HoH cards provide a way to alert the staff to the pastoral care needs of the congregation. Please use them, and place them in the offering plate or give them to a minister. This is a way to keep us informed about the life of our members.

If you would like a pastor to call on you in the hospital, or if you are ill at home and would like a visit, please call the church office at (651) 227-6311, to let us know. If you know someone else in the congregation who could benefit from a visit, please contact the church.

Are you visiting?

Thank you for choosing to worship at House of Hope. Visitors are invited to sign the Friendship registration pad. Please include an email or street address so we can tell you about worship, mission, and events at The House of Hope. Please look for greeters who wear the "Welcome" tag for information. The next New Member Class will take place on Sunday, May 19 at 11:15 a.m. in the library. A light lunch will be served, and childcare is available. Please RSVP in the church office.

Hosanna to the Son of David.
Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
Blessed be the King of Israel.
Thou that sittest in the highest heavens.
Hosanna in excelsis Deo!

+Affirmation of Faith — Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.
Amen.

Christ Jesus entered Jerusalem;
not proudly but humbly rode He.
Upon a brown donkey, a lowly beast,
Christ rode with humility.
Hosanna we sing to Christ our King!
Hosanna we sing to our Lord!

Ride on now, O King, without scepter or crown,
Ride into the hearts of mankind!
Rule Thou our lives with love and peace,
Ride on now, O King divine!
Hosanna we sing to Christ our King!
Hosanna we sing to our Lord!

Responsive Prayer on Christ's Passion and the Lord's Prayer

Rev. Julia A. Carlson

(Congregation reads the text in bold.)

Lord God, as we move from the triumph of the palms, to the remembrance of the cross and the Passion,
we come to a more profound realization of our sins and betrayal of you.
As we confess our sins, we ask that you forgive and preserve us:

from sloth that does not care about life's meaning;
from lust that turns love into chaos;
from envy that sees the world through resentful eyes;
from gluttony that wastes our lives with clutter;
from greed that desensitizes and dehumanizes us;
from wrath's fury that burns us on the inside;
from pride's aloofness that makes us cold on the outside.

As we enter this Holy Week,
we remember your agony
through the suffering of your Son, Jesus Christ:

the trial and tribulation;
the injustice and rejection;
the bonds and scourging;
the crown of thorns and the mocking;
the betrayal and the falling away of all your disciples;
the cross and the Passion.

As the Son of God, in your pain,
You stand with all who suffer from the sins of the world.
You call us to remember, to repent, and to renew our lives.
In the light of your redemptive love,
you break the power of sin and evil.

Lord, forgive what we have been.
Help us to change what we are.
Guide us into what we shall be through Jesus Christ,
who continues to teach us as we pray:

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.
Amen.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING. In Isaiah 58, God issues a call and a challenge — to love one another more deeply by sharing what we have with those in need. One Great Hour of Sharing is our direct response to the ways in which God has called us to share. Today and next Sunday, we ask you to give generously to an offering that makes the love of Christ real for individuals and communities around the world who suffer the effects of disaster, conflict, or severe economic hardship, and for those who serve them through gifts of money and time. Today, projects are underway in more than 100 countries, including the United States and Canada. Please use the special envelopes in the pew rack, or the white envelopes indicating: OGHs. You can also donate online at www.hohchurch.org, or through My HoH, or by texting HOH OGHs to 73256. Thank you.

The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated today for George Mack, son of Benjamin and Ann Mack. Elder assisting is Ingrid Verhagen.

We respectfully request that photographs not be taken during the celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism. Please help us honor the sacrament and the prayerful attention of the congregation. Photographs may be taken in the sanctuary following the service.

Stewardship Update

First and foremost: thank you to all of you for your generous pledges and gifts.

By mid March we are ahead of last year and see positive results in every category we look at.

Compared to 2018:

1. The number of new pledges has more than doubled.
2. The number of households that reduced their pledge is down.
3. We have received pledges from 349 households for a total of $1,161,674.
4. The average pledge is $3,329 and the median pledge is $2,000. Both have increased from 2018.
5. There are 54 households who pledged in 2018 that have not pledged. A possible gain of $104,373.

$1,161,674 is great and is 91.5 % of the goal of $1,270,000. We are $108,000 short of our goal.

The campaign has involved messages from Rev. McDonald, three Minutes for Missions on stewardship, a letter with a pledge card in November, a reminder letter in January, phone calls in February, and recently everyone received a letter concerning Per Capita, the form of mission giving to the larger work of the Presbyterian Church.

The $108,000 shortfall can be eliminated by sending in your Per Capita (for 2019: $35.70 for each active member); through the generosity of those who pledged last year and have not this year; and through a little extra giving by each of us. We all need to show our love for this church and all its blessings. An additional $6 per week from every giving household would raise $109,000.

I know it sounds like it's all about money and it is. But, it really is about generosity.

To carry out our mission, our vision for the future, to maintain and update this beautiful old building, and to secure the best in new leadership requires a strong financial commitment and your generosity.

We all need to show our crazy love for this place.
