

THE HOUSE OF HOPE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"Where men and women perceive Christ's resurrection and begin to live within its horizon, they themselves will be born again to a living hope which reaches beyond death, and in living love will begin to experience eternal life in the fulfilled moment. They experience themselves in God, and God in themselves, and that is eternal life."

- Jurgen Moltmann

Music Sunday and All Saints' Sunday | November 3, 2019 10 a.m.

THE APPROACH TO GOD

Prelude

Aaron David Miller, organist

Introit

How Can I Keep from Singing
The Motet Choir, Matthew Culloton, choirmaster

arr. Matthew Culloton

Through all the tumult and the strife,
I hear that music ringing.
It sounds an echo in my soul;
How can I keep from singing?

No storm can shake my inmost calm
While to the rock I'm clinging.
Since Love is Lord of Heaven and Earth,
How can I keep from singing?

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Merciful God,
you pardon all who truly repent and turn to you.
We confess before you and one another
we have not loved you with our whole heart,
nor have we loved our neighbor as ourselves.
We have ignored the pain of the world,
and passed by the hungry, the poor, and the oppressed.
In your great mercy, forgive us
and set us free from our sins, that we may live in your light and love, revealed in Jesus Christ.

(The prayer will continue with our silent confessions.)

Assurance of Pardon

Rev. Zachary O. Wilson

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Christmas Sponsor-A-Family 2019

Through the Christmas Sponsor-A-Family program last year, the House of Hope community provided 76 families with Christmas gifts to make the holiday a little brighter. This year we're hoping to increase our generosity by serving 80 families. As we all reflect on the true meaning of the season, we hope you will prayerfully consider sponsorship this year and help ease the holiday stress for families in our community.

Please stop by the Kirk Parlour one of the first three Sundays in November (November 3, 10, or 17) to check out family wish lists and sign up. A list of families and preferred gift ideas will be available for "adoption" on these three Sundays directly following the 10 a.m. worship service. The suggested sponsorship amount per family member is $50/person. This means if you adopt a family of four, we hope you could provide approximately $200 in gifts to ensure a happy holiday for a family in need.

You may also share sponsorship of a larger family with another church member. If you don't like to shop but would like to spread the Christmas spirit with families in need, cash donations are also welcome and will be used to provide a grocery gift card for each family. Donations (including checks) can be dropped off at the sign-up table in the Kirk Parlour or at the church office with a note indicating they are for "Christmas Sponsor-A-Family."

If you have sponsored a family in the past, you know how important your gifts are. Your continued generosity will help make this Christmas season warm and memorable for our local community.

Food...a simple and powerful gift. "Can I have some more, Mom?" There are parents near us who respond "No, there isn't any more." Food pantries help seniors and families avoid skipping meals, and provide healthy food. You can give food or cash for healthy foods anytime you come to church. The shopping carts are in the narthex and by the chapel, and it's easy to drop a check in the offering plate on Sunday with "food shelf" in the memo line. Neighborhood House multiplies your cash gift through their buying methods, keeping shelves stocked at their two food pantries.

Forums On Peace and Justice Advocacy.

Join members of the Peace & Justice Committee for a presentation on and discussion of the role of peace and justice advocacy in the Presbyterian Church USA, and the mission of the Peace and Justice Committee at House of Hope Church. Bedding Needs For Mino Oski Ain Dah Yung.

House of Hope has been asked to help provide bedding for the new residents of Mino Oski Ain Dah Yung (MOADY). This new residence has space for 42 Native American youth in need of supportive housing, and the first 15 residents will begin moving in on Nov. 4. Needed for each resident is a pillow, full size bedding (mattress pad, sheets, and comforter). A donation site has been set up in the coat area behind the Assembly room, against the back wall. The approximate cost of providing one set of bedding is $100. If you prefer to make a financial donation of any size, you can contribute to House of Hope and note that the funds are to go to MOADY. Thank you very much for any contribution you can make toward these bedding needs.

Mission Sewing will meet on Thursday, November 7 beginning at 9:30 a.m. in Dining Rooms A & B to work on current projects. If you would like to stay for lunch, bring a sandwich, and coffee and conversation will be provided. We will finish around 1 p.m. Come for an hour or for the morning; all are welcome. ## Body Wellness

Presenters: Rev. Julia Carlson and Kimberly Owens-Parenteau

The Constitution of the World Health Organization states, "Good health is a state of complete physical, social and mental wellbeing, and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity." It speaks, not just about body, but about the whole human being. The word "health" comes from the Old English word that means "whole." It meant to be hail and healthy, whole and uninjured and has ties to the Germanic, Old Norse, as well as Old English word for holy. One of my favorite resources on the subject states, "People are whole: mind, body, psyche, and spirit are integrated in that whole." (Cultivating Wholeness by Margaret Kornfield.) Our physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual health are a wholeness that God intends for all persons. For Adult Enrichment in November, we will take a look at some aspects of this unity of wellness beginning first with the Body. Please join us!
