Professional childcare is provided for infants through PreK from 9:45 a.m.–12:00 p.m. in the east wing.

- Preschool and PreK | Room 2
- Kindergarten through 5th grade are invited to the east wing following the Time for Children.
- Middle and High School to the Youth Room during the offering to prepare for Souper Bowl of Caring.

Large print hymnals and bulletins are available. Hearing devices can be signed out from the table in the Narthex. Ushers are available for assistance. Please return the hearing device to the table after worship.

Live broadcasts and audio versions of worship services are available at hohchurch.org. Copies of past sermons are available at the church's Welcome Centers and in the rack across from the Assembly Room.

The single candle near the pulpit is our Peace Candle, lighted each day as a reminder of the ongoing need for our prayers for peace in the world.

The Connect @ HoH cards provide a way to alert the staff to the pastoral care needs of the congregation. Please use them, and place them in the offering plate or give them to a minister. This is a way to keep us informed about the life of our members.

If you would like a pastor to call on you in the hospital, or if you are ill at home and would like a visit, please call the church office at (651) 227-6311, to let us know. If you know someone else in the congregation who could benefit from a visit, please contact the church.

Are you visiting?

Thank you for choosing to worship at House of Hope. Visitors are invited to sign the Friendship registration pad. Please include an email or street address so we can tell you about worship, mission, and events at The House of Hope. Please look for greeters who wear the "Welcome" tag for information. The next New Member Class will take place on Sunday, February 16 at 11:15 a.m. in the Library. A light lunch will be served, and childcare is available. Please RSVP in the church office.

Call to Confession (congregation seated)

Rev. Zachary O. Wilson

Minister: The Lord is with you.

People: And also with you.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done,

and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength.

We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

In your mercy forgive what we have been,

help us amend what we are,

and direct what we shall be,

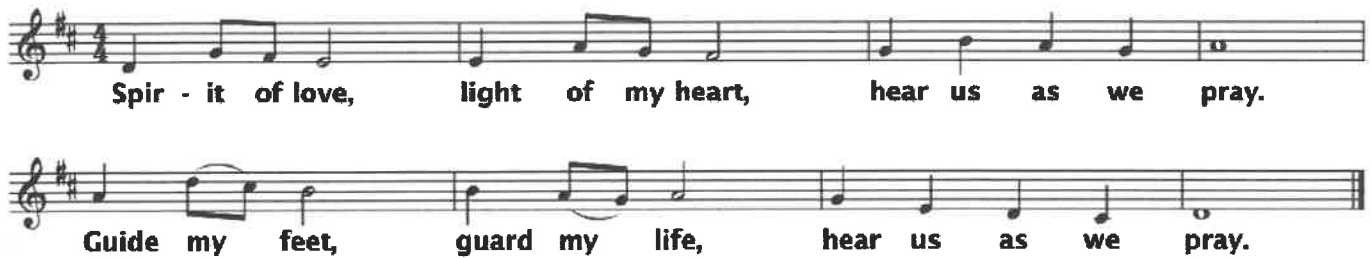

so that we may delight in your will

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your holy name.

(The prayer will continue with our silent confessions.)

Response

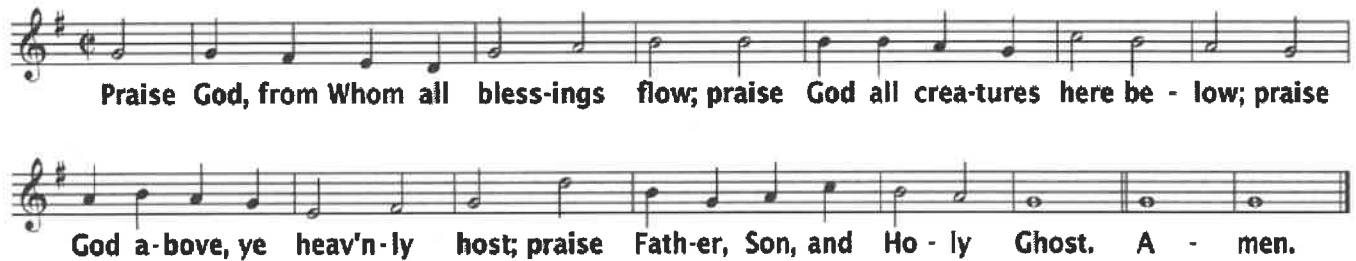

Assurance of Pardon

Minister: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Welcome and Announcements

Greetings from Macalester College

President Brian C. Rosenberg

Anthem

Psalm 23

Herbert Howells

Macalester College Choir; Michael McGaghie, Director

The Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing. He shall feed me in a green pasture: and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort. He shall convert my soul: and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: thy rod and thy staff comfort me. Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me: thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full. But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Anthem

Psalm 121

Herbert Howells

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help. My help cometh even from the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: and he that keepeth thee will not sleep. Behold, he that keepeth Israel: shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord himself is thy keeper: he is thy defence upon thy right hand. So that the sun shall not burn thee by day: neither the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in: from this time forth and for evermore.

THE RESPONSE TO GOD

Anthem

The Day Is Done

Stephen Paulus

The day is done, and the darkness
Falls from the wings of night,
As a feather is wafted downward
From an eagle in his flight.

I see the lights of the village
Gleam through the rain and the mist,
And a feeling of sadness comes over me
That my soul cannot resist:

A feeling of sadness and longing,
That is not akin to pain,
And resembles sorrow only
As the mist resembles the rain,
As the mist resembles the rain.

Come, come read to me some poem,
Some simple and heartfelt lay,

That shall soothe this restless feeling,
And banish the thoughts of day.

Read from some humble poet,
Whose songs gushed from his heart,
As showers from the clouds of summer,
Or tears from the eyelids start;

Then read from some treasured volume
The poem of thy choice,
And lend to the rhyme of the poet
The beauty of thy voice,
The beauty of thy voice.
And the night shall be filled with music,
And the cares, that infest the day,
Shall be banished like restless feelings
And silently, silently, silently,
Silently steal away.

+ Affirmation of Faith – The Apostles' Creed

Rev. Julia A. Carlson

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints;
the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Rev. Dr. Andrew L. McDonald

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Today is MACALESTER SUNDAY, the day we commemorate our historic ties to Macalester College. Our mutual founder was the Rev. Dr. Edward Duffield Neill, pictured on the bulletin cover. Neill was Superintendent of Public Instruction for the Minnesota Territory in 1851–53, and chancellor of the State university in 1858–61. During the Civil War he served in the army as a hospital chaplain from 1861–64. He worked for Presidents Lincoln and Johnson, who in 1869 nominated him United States Commissioner of Education. He served as the president of Macalester College in 1873–74, and afterwards as professor of history and literature. The bulletin cover photo is of the Edward Duffield Neill window, located near the Kirk Parlour.

About today's preacher:

Maude Quinn '19 is a recent graduate of Macalester College where she studied English Literature and Religious Studies. She currently works in Macalester's Center for Religious and Spiritual Life researching connection, belonging, and spirituality in college communities. Maude hopes to pursue chaplaincy and help create nourishing communities that integrate our inner and outer lives. She loves whipped cream and her seven housemates.

About today's Adult Education presenter:

Autumn DeLong is currently a senior at Macalester, studying Religious Studies and International Studies. Her academic work has largely focused on exploring the role of spirituality in the midst of existential change. After Macalester, Autumn hopes to pursue Divinity School and work to support migrant and marginalized communities in the U.S. and abroad. She is an avid coffee drinker and loves singing with Macalester's Concert Choir.

Food Glorious Food...make it happen!

Keep the food and monetary donations coming in as we get nearer to our March Food Drive. The news is beginning to cover the impending cuts to food assistance (SNAP). "What these cuts will do is literally take food off Minnesota tables. It means more hungry neighbors," says Allison O'Toole, CEO of Second Harvest Heartland. Less help with food brings trouble with paying rent, drives evictions and more churning homelessness. Food pantries are already recording more visits than ever before. Bring your food or money gifts to church regularly and help children, families, adults and seniors. They are our neighbors.

Tweens & Middle School Winter Skate Party. Friday, February 14, 6 – 7:30 p.m. 4th-8th graders are invited to join us at CHS Field in St. Paul for an evening of ice skating and tubing on the super slide. Cost is $10 per person. Bring your own ice skates or $5 for skate rental, as well as cash for concessions. Electronic waivers must be completed on the day of the event. Families are responsible for their own transportation. Chaperones are needed. R.S.V.P. to Kiera Stegall at KieraS@hohchurch.org by Wednesday, February 12.

ADULT ENRICHMENT

11:15 a.m. | Assembly Room

Today: Making Home: Spirituality Through Migrants' Eyes.

Presented by Macalester College Senior, Autumn DeLong. "This presentation is based upon research I conducted with Mexican Catholic migrant women living in Minneapolis and Q'ero indigenous migrants living in Cusco, Peru. Spiritual practices, beliefs, and communities serve as a central source of empowerment and resilience, and these traditions define and reinforce these migrants' sense of identity."

February 9: Our Special Universe.

What makes the universe special from a scientific perspective? Had the universe evolved even slightly differently, not only would life have been unlikely to arise, but galaxies, stars, and even the chemical elements might not have formed in the first place. Will the future be influenced by our own contributions? University of Saint Thomas Physics Professor Paul Ohmann will address Emergence and "Anthropic Coincidences!"

February 16: The Anthropocene Era and the Human Prospect.

Have humans become a geological force? Professor Arjun Guneratne from the Macalester Anthropology Department will address how humans have impacted our current geologic time frame and transformed how the earth system works. What might this mean for a common future?

February 26: Prepare for next weekend's 2020 Didier Seminar. In the library, HOH member Phil Bolinder provides an overview and take questions about distinguished Didier speaker John Haught's latest book, The New Cosmic Story.

Didier Seminar

Dr. John Haught

February 29 & March 1

John F. Haught is Senior Fellow, Science and Religion, at the Woodstock Theological Center at Georgetown University, where he has taught courses such as The Problem of God, Theological Method, Science and Religion, and Religion and Ecology. He lectures internationally on many issues related to science and religion. In 2002 he was the winner of the Owen Garrigan Award in Science and Religion and in 2004 the Sophia Award for Theological Excellence. Additionally, Dr. Haught was the only theologian to testify as an expert witness in the landmark 2005 Dover trial that ruled against teaching intelligent design in public schools (Kitzmiller et al. vs. Dover Board of Education).

Upcoming Speakers
