

THE HOUSE OF HOPE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"In Sunday school, I learned to think of God as a very old white-bearded man on a throne, who stood above creation and occasionally stirred it with a stick... what I see is an infinite web of relationship, flung across the vastness of space like a luminous net."

Barbara Brown Taylor
The Luminous Web

Rally Sunday | September 12, 2021 10 a.m.

Welcome

We are delighted you have joined House of Hope for worship.

Our caring and active community welcomes you.

We extend the hospitality of Christ to all.

Regarding Masks for In-Person Worship.

Please know in light of the evolving situation regarding the Delta variant and new guidelines offered by the Mayor of Saint Paul, we now strongly encourage all those who attend worship to wear a mask. In this fluid situation with changing national, state and local protocols, we will continue to monitor developments and discern how best to respond while keeping in mind the safety of church staff and those attending worship.

Please continue to maintain physical distance from other worshippers not in your household, as children under the age of 12 are not yet able to be vaccinated.

Offering plates will be available at the sanctuary doors.

After the service, please join us for a time of fellowship by the Spirit of Hope statue for Caribou coffee and chocolate chip cookies.

Our worship service is also livestreamed and can be accessed on the home page of our website (hohchurch.org) and on our Facebook page (The House of Hope Presbyterian Church).

HYMN TO JOY

Invitation to Prayer

"Prayer and comfortable living are incompatible," observes Teresa of Avila. Why is that? Prayer moves us to front lines of our life, our community and our world. Prayer directs us to places that require our attention. Let us pray:

Prayer of Reflection adapted from Scottish liturgy

We gather, O Lord, to offer you our praise, for you are our maker, sustainer, and our redeemer. We praise you for when there was but a universe yet imagined, you brought forth constellations, stars, and planets. Dawn and evening celebrate your glory and remind us the echoes of eternity are ever in our midst. We praise you for in Christ, your Son, heaven and earth were joined, forging the promise of a new creation, given, and yet still to come. And yet, O Lord, we know there are pressing needs in our world that require us to be your hands, your voice.

So help us, we pray, to step forward as your disciples with our eyes, hearts and hands wide open, seeking to be participants in your re-creation of our world, so it might be as you imagined, a home where justice, mercy and love reign. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon:

Leader: John Henry Newman once wrote, "To holy people the very name of Jesus is a name to transport. His name can raise the dead and transfigure and . . . beautify the living." And so hear the good news of the gospel,

People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

All Praise To Thee

Thomas Tallis arr. Pooler

St Nicholas Choir, Sofia Ardalan, director; Timothy Short, organist

All praise to thee, our God and King,
For all the blessings thou dost bring,
For loving care thou dost bestow
On all thy creatures here below.

Teach us to live that we might be
Most faithful followers of thee,
Keep us, O keep us, King of Kings,
Beneath thine own almighty wings.

We thank thee, Lord, for thy dear son,
For all the goodness he hath done,
For all the sorry he hath borne,
For joy he brings to men forlorn.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise him, all creatures here below,
Praise him above, ye heavenly host,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

All this for us thy love hath done,
By this to thee our love is won,
For this thy loving children sing,
Our thanks and praise to thee we bring.

There's A Wideness In God's Mercy

IN BABILON

+ Affirmation of Faith — excerpt from Brief Statement of Faith

We trust in Jesus Christ,
Fully human, fully God.
Jesus proclaimed the reign of God:
preaching good news to the poor
and release to the captives,
teaching by word and deed
and blessing the children,
healing the sick
and binding up the brokenhearted,
eating with outcasts,
forgiving sinners,
and calling all to repent and believe the gospel.

Offertory Anthem

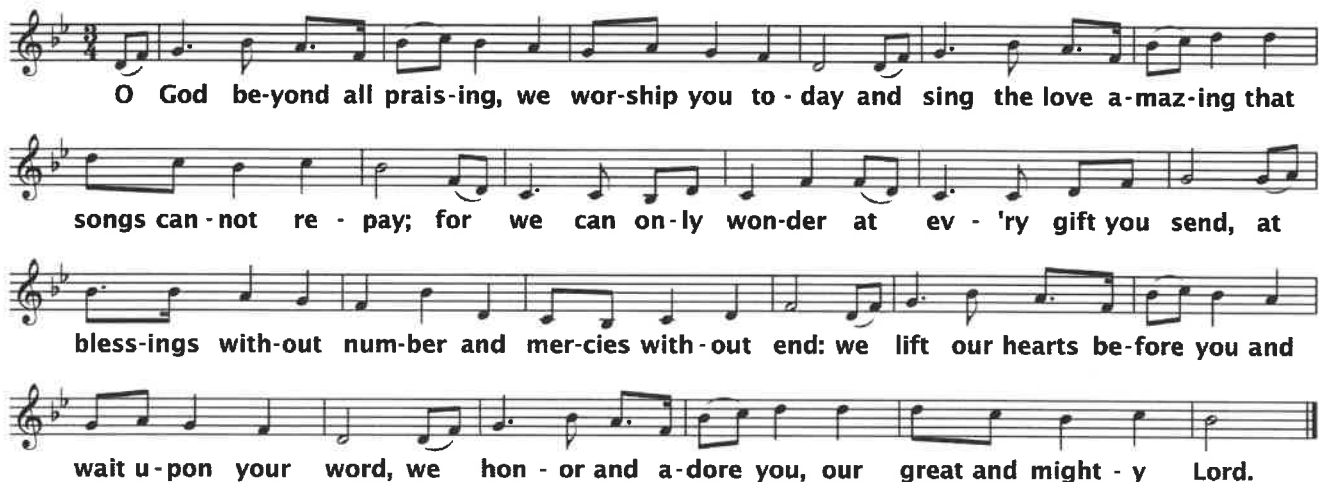

Jubilate Deo

William Mathias

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.
Serve the Lord with gladness;
Come before his presence with singing.
Know ye that the Lord he is God:
It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves:
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,

And into his courts with praise:
Be thankful unto him, and bless his name.
For the Lord is good, his mercy is everlasting;
And his truth endureth to all generations. Amen.

+ Offertory Response

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Frederick William Faber, 1854; alt.

Dutch melody
Arr. Julius Röntgen (1855-1933)

1. There's a wide-ness in God'smer - cy, Like the wide-ness of the sea;
2. For the love of God is broad-er Than the mea-sures of the mind;

And the heart of the E - ter-nal Is most won-der - ful - ly kind.

There is no place where earth's sor-rows Are more felt than up in heaven;
If our love were but more faith-ful, We would glad-ly trust God's Word;

There is no place where earth's fail-ings Have such kind-ly judg - ment given.
And our lives re - flect thanks-giv-ing For the good-ness of our Lord.

Praise God for the living Word.
