

THE HOUSE OF HOPE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

“When the linguistic term seme (derived from the Greek sema, ‘sign’) is preceded by the privative a-, the normal meaning of what follows is neutralized (compare symmetric and asymmetric).”

First Sunday of Advent | November 28, 2021 10 a.m.

Welcome

We are delighted you have joined House of Hope for worship.

Our caring and active community welcomes you.

We extend the hospitality of Christ to all.

Regarding Masks for In-Person Worship.

Please know in light of the evolving situation regarding the Delta variant guidelines, we now strongly encourage all those who attend worship to wear a mask. In this fluid situation with changing national, state and local protocols, we will continue to monitor developments and discern how best to respond while keeping in mind the safety of church staff and those attending worship.

Please continue to maintain physical distance from other worshippers not in your household, as children under the age of 5 are not yet able to be vaccinated.

Deacons will provide offering plates at the sanctuary doors.

Our worship service is also livestreamed and can be accessed on the home page of our website (hohchurch.org) and on our Facebook page (The House of Hope Presbyterian Church.)

After the service, please join us for a time of fellowship in the Kirk Parlour.

We invite you to join the over 80 House of Hope members and freinds who have already pledged with an average pledge increase of 12%.

Pledge cards can be found in the narthex information racks and in the front office.

"If" is one of the most significant words in the Bible. Jesus uses it repeatedly to deepen our understanding of what it looks like to follow him in our lives. Jesus said, for example, "if you listen..." "If you forgive..." "If you believe..."

Our 2022 Stewardship Campaign that seeks to fund our Annual Budget focuses on how the word "if" has shaped the past, present, and future of The House of Hope.

If generations before us had not generously provided the means to build The House of Hope, we would not be able to enjoy our lovely sanctuary and building.

If members and friends had not given to The Houses of Hope Fund, we would not be able to make substantial grants to provide affordable housing in our community.

If members and friends had not contributed generously to our 2021 Stewardship Campaign, we could not have funded Mission Outreach giving from our annual operating budget for the first time in seventeen years.

HYFRYDOL

Invitation to Prayer

Lynn Barger Elliott

“Advent begins where human potential ends,” observes Rev. Fleming Rutledge.

In Advent we are reminded as human beings we cannot save ourselves and what our soul requires is, in fact, a Messiah. Let us pray:

Prayer of Reflection – adapted from Ann Weems

O God, you are the one who comes to us in the burning bush, in an angel’s song, in a newborn child.

Where and how you will appear is never predictable,
but it is always what we need.

So help us, we pray, this Advent,

To follow signs of your coming,
so we might stand once again in awe and joy,
under a Bethlehem star. Amen

Assurance of Forgiveness – Isaiah 53:1-5

Leader: The prophet declares, “He grew up... like a root out of dry ground.... He was despised and rejected... and familiar with suffering... But he was pierced for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed. Friends begin the good news of the gospel.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

+ Doxology

Praise God, from Whom all bless-ings flow; praise God all crea-tures here be - low; praise
God a-bove, ye heav'n-ly host; praise Fath-er, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost. A - men.

Anthem

Light Everlasting

Olaf C. Christiansen

O Light Everlasting, O Love never failing.
Illumine our darkness and draw us to thee.
May we from thy spirit receive inspiration
As children together thy wisdom may see.
Make known to all nation thy peace and salvation,
And help us O Father, thy temple to be.

THE WORD OF GOD

THE RESPONSE TO GOD

+ Hymn 48

Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming

ES IST EIN' ROS'

+ Affirmation of Faith – Heidelberg Catechism 4.066

Sacraments are visible, holy signs and seals. They were instituted by God so that by our use of them God might make us understand more clearly the promise of the gospel, and seal that promise. And this is God's gospel promise: to grant us forgiveness of sins and eternal life by grace because of Christ's one sacrifice accomplished on the cross. Amen.

Offering - There are four ways to give an offering:

- In-Person. Offering plates will be provided by deacons at the sanctuary doors.
- Website. On the homepage, click "Support House of Hope", then click on "Make a Gift" Members can also sign into MyHOH to give.
- Mail. Mail a check to 797 Summit Ave. Saint Paul, MN 55105
- QR Code. Please see page 8.

Anthem

Christ in the Stranger's Guise

David Ashley White

I saw a stranger yestre'en, I put food in the eating place, drink in the drinking place, music in the listening place,
and in the sacred name of the Triune,
He blessed me and my house,
my cattle and my dear ones.
And the lark said in her song: "Often, Often,
Often, goes the Christ in the stranger's guise."

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

Invitation to the Lord's Table

The Great Thanksgiving

Leader: The Lord is with you.

People:
And with thy spir - it.

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

People:
We lift them up un-to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People:
It is meet and right so to do.

Leader: On this first Sunday of Advent, O Lord, we are mindful how you created our universe and world as a manifestation of your glory and human beings in your image, and yet, O Lord, as we gather around this table.... Hear us now as we pray together in one voice:

People:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord God of Hosts,
Heav'n and earth are full of Thy glo - ry:
Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord Most High. A - men

Leader: Blessed is Jesus, the Christ... And hear us now as we say the prayer Jesus taught us:

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Words of Institution

All who desire to partake will be dismissed from the back to the front by an usher. Please come down the center aisle to receive an individual cup and piece of bread and return to your seats by the side aisles. Those unable to come forward will be served in the pew. If you prefer a gluten-free wafer, please inform the server.

Prayer after Communion

Leader: Bless the Lord, O my soul;

People: and all that is within me, bless God's holy name!

Leader: Bless the Lord, O my soul;

People: and forget not all God's benefits.

Leader and People:

Through this meal we have shared as a family of faith,
help us O Lord, we pray, to become pilgrims this Advent,
opening our heart, soul and mind to following signs that will lead us to a manger and that holy place on the horizon where our love for you and one another will overflow in abundance. Amen.

Festival of HOPE

“Hope is the last thing ever lost.” The words of this Italian proverb inspire us to scan our horizons to detect places of emerging hope, especially in challenging times. Festival of Hope, our online conference, invites us to find hope in the landscapes of the refugee crisis, faith and science, the writings of William James, racial injustice, the sacred within us, and the American identity.

These conversations will be available on our website, hohchurch.org November 13.

Becca Stevens, a “CNN Hero,” is a social entrepreneur, author, priest, and founder of Thistle Farms. Her new book Practically Divine is about experiencing the sacred in our lives.

Jess McHugh is a writer and researcher whose work has appeared in The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, and TIME. Her book, Americanon, was published this year.

Dr. John Kaag is an award-winning author and Chair of Philosophy at UMass Lowell. He will speak on his new book, Sick Souls, Healthy Minds: How William James Can Save Your Life.

Jessica Goudeau is author of After the Last Border: Two Families and the Story of Refuge in America, named a New York Times Editors’ Choice book. She has written for The New York Times and The Atlantic.

Greg Cootsona is a professor, author and noted speaker on the intersection between science and faith. He has written for The Wall Street Journal and has been interviewed by CNN and the BBC.

Sponsor-A-Family

Out of 71 families, only 3 are left to sponsor! We are partnering this year with the YWCA, Neighborhood House, Liberty Plaza, and the Wilder Foundation to spread some Christmas joy!

Visit hohchurch.org/christmas-sponsor-a-family to find the SignUpGenius link where information on families will be provided. A family wish list will be emailed to you. For assistance with SignUpGenius, please contact the church office. Don't like to shop? Donations are welcome and will be used to provide a grocery gift card for each family. Mail or drop off donations in the church office. Memo: Family Sponsor.

Curbside Drop-Off Dates: December 5 and 12, 2-4 p.m. All gifts should be delivered to HOH by December 12.

First Light — Advent Celebration | Sunday, November 28 | 4 p.m.

Join us in the Assembly Room at 4 p.m. for creating Advent crafts and wreaths. On the Summit Lawn, we will celebrate the beginning of Advent as we light the trees on Summit Avenue to proclaim the "light" is coming into the world.

We'll enjoy a Carillon concert by Dave Johnson at 4:30 p.m. with cookies and hot cocoa. At 5 p.m. we will light our Summit Avenue trees in joy and expectation for the coming of the Christ child.
