

THE HOUSE OF HOPE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"At its most sublime intensity, transfiguration is utter vision; no one can stay long on the Mountain of Transfiguration, but if you have ever been there, you cannot suppress seeing it without damaging yourself. For thousands of years, the Cross has been a symbol of the transfiguration of pain. It is a powerful touching, and sacred symbol."

-Eternal Echoes, John O'Donohue

Easter Sunday | April 17, 2022 9 a.m. and 11 a.m.

Welcome

We are delighted you have joined House of Hope for worship.

House of Hope extends the hospitality of Christ to all who gather here. Our church uses traditional worship, progressive values, and intellectual growth to enable people to better serve the neighborhood, community, and the world. Our caring active community welcomes people of all ages and backgrounds.

Our regular Sunday Worship time is 10 a.m., followed by refreshments, social hour, and educational opportunities. If you have any questions, our ushers will be glad to help you.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING. In Isaiah 58, God issues a call and a challenge — to love one another more deeply by sharing what we have with those in need. One Great Hour of Sharing is our direct response to the ways in which God has called us to share. Today and next Sunday, we ask you to give generously to an offering that makes the love of Christ real for individuals and communities around the world who suffer the effects of disaster, conflict, or severe economic hardship, and for those who serve them through gifts of money and time. Today, projects are underway in more than 100 countries, including the United States and Canada. Please use the special envelopes in the pew rack, or the white envelopes indicating: OGHS. You can also donate online at www.hohchurch.org, or through My HoH, or by texting HOH OGHS to 73256. Children can bring their fish banks to Sunday School. Thank you.

HOH Featured on PBS's "Secrets of Sacred Architecture"

Airing TODAY, Easter Sunday, April 17 on Twin Cities Public Television | 1 p.m.

For most of America's history, sacred buildings represented our greatest feats of innovative engineering and artistic design. For a time, America's tallest structure and its largest-capacity building were churches, and a Maryland church organ stood as the most complex machine ever built. SECRETS OF SACRED ARCHITECTURE unlocks the elements of design that make these innovative structures so fascinating and unveils the meaning embedded in religious architecture. Part of this episode was filmed at House of Hope! For more information and additional broadcast dates, visit: www.tpt.org/secrets-of-sacred-architecture/schedule/

+ Processional Hymn 123

Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

EASTER HYMN

+ Opening Affirmation

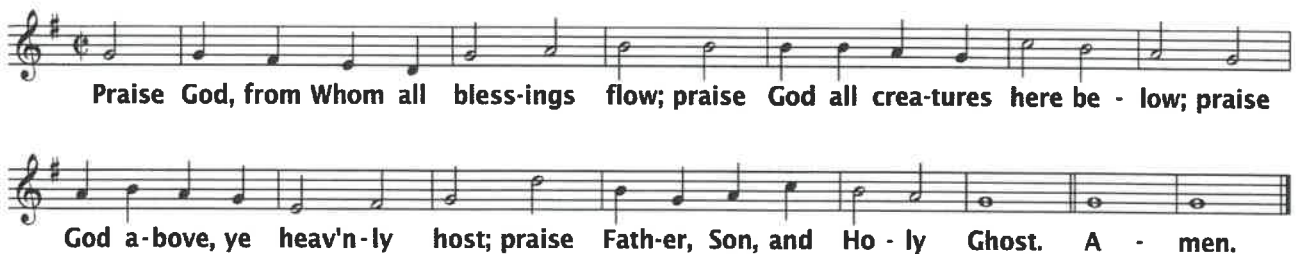

Erica Schemper

Minister: Alleluia! Christ is risen!

People: Christ is risen indeed!

This is the good news which we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved, if we hold it fast: that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures, that He was buried, that He was raised on the third day, and that He appeared first to the women, then to Peter, and to the Twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses. We believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus Christ is the first and the last, the beginning and the end; He is our Lord and our God. Amen.

+ Doxology

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow; praise God all creatures here be - low; praise God a - bove, ye heav'n - ly host; praise Fath - er, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost. A - men.

Welcome and Announcements

Anthem

Christ the Lord is Risen Again

John Rutter

Christ the Lord is risen again;
Christ has broken every chain.
Hark, the angels shout for joy,
singing evermore on high:
Alleluia!

He who bore all pain and loss
comfortless upon the cross
lives in glory now on high,
pleads for us, and hears our cry:
Alleluia!

He who gave for us his life,
who for us endured the strife,
is our Paschal Lamb today.
We too sing for joy and say:
Alleluia!

Now he bids us tell abroad
how the lost may be restored,
how the penitent forgiv'n,
how we too may enter heav'n,
Alleluia!

Thou our Paschal Lamb indeed,
Christ, today thy people feed;
Take our sins and guilt away,
That we all may sing for ay,
Alleluia!

THE RESPONSE TO GOD

+ Hymn 115

Come, Ye Faithful, Raise the Strain

ST. KEVIN

+ Affirmation of Faith — from A Brief Statement of Faith

We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God.

Jesus proclaimed the reign of God: preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed

and blessing the children, healing the sick and binding up the brokenhearted, eating with outcasts, forgiving sinners, and calling all to repent and believe the gospel.

Unjustly condemned for blasphemy and sedition, Jesus was crucified, suffering the depths of human pain and giving his life for the sins of the world.

God raised this Jesus from the dead, vindicating his sinless life, breaking the power of sin and evil, delivering us from death to life eternal.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offering — There are four ways to give an offering:

April Cloister Gallery Exhibit: Abstract Impressionism Inspired by Music

Artist Robyn Sand Anderson says: "I am inspired by the beauty of color and colors up against each other in harmony and discord, by the beauty of nature, by the swell of strings and human voices raised in song, and by the resiliency of the human spirit." Enjoy her stunning abstracts inspired by the music of Stephen Paulus, J.S. Bach, Arvo Pärt, and Edvard Grieg (and enjoy the audio pairings by QR code). Her use of vibrant color, especially when paired with music, always move toward hope.
