

THE HOUSE OF HOPE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"For three years, Ted Lasso became something like a national water cooler — a place where we could gather outside our departments and our hierarchies and our political bubbles to remember who we are. Or at least who we still desperately want to be. Understood. Forgiven. Connected." — Margaret Renkl

Blessing and Honor

O QUANTA QUALIA

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Rev. Dr. Julia A. Carlson

Almighty God, You have promised liberation for your people, and reconciliation for all of creation. We confess that we have grown weary of waiting.
We have lowered our hopes, and scaled our expectations according to the world, rather than believing in your steadfast Word. We confess that we have grown comfortable in our waiting. We cry out for justice if it doesn't cost us too much.
We proclaim your liberation, as long as it doesn't impinge on the freedoms that we value most. We want to follow Jesus, healing the sick and doing good deeds, but we don't want to be mistreated or hated. We don't want to stir up the dust, much less shake it from our feet. Forgive us, we pray. Give us words to speak your liberating Word and endurance to persevere until your kingdom comes.

(The prayer will continue with our silent confessions.)

Assurance of Forgiveness

Leader: Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

+ Affirmation of Faith — from A Declaration of Faith

We worship God in the world by standing before the Lord on behalf of all people.

Our cries for help and our songs for praise are never for ourselves alone.

We serve humankind by discerning what God is doing in the world and joining in God's work. We find guidance in God's deeds in the past and promises for the future, as they are witnessed to in Scripture.

We affirm that the Lord is at work, especially in movements that free people by the gospel and advance justice, compassion, and peace.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power
and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offering — There are four ways to give an offering:

Offertory Anthem

Now that the day has come to a close (from The Three Hermits)

Stephen Paulus

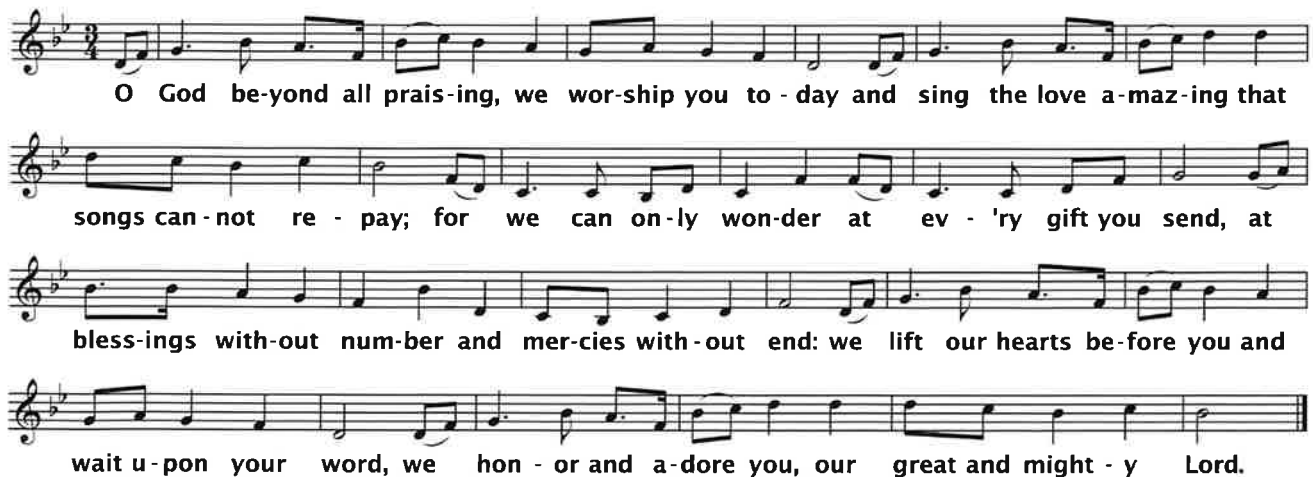

Now that the day has come to a close,
I thank thee, O Lord,
And I ask that the evening with the night
May be sinless;
Grant this to me, O grant this to me,
O Savior, and save me.

Glory to the Father,
And to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit.

Now that the blessed day has passed,
I praise thee, O Lord,
And I ask that the evening with the night
May be without blame;
Grant this to me, O grant this to me,
O Savior, and save me.

Both now and forever,
And unto ages of ages,
Amen.

The Three Hermits

An Opera by Stephen Paulus Featuring The Motet Choir and House of Hope Orchestra

Thursday, July 6 | Sanctuary | 7 p.m.

This performance was requested by the American Guild of Organists for their North Central Region Convention being held in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

The opera composed by Stephen Paulus features a libretto by Michael Dennis Browne and is based on a short story by Leo Tolstoy. The Three Hermits gave birth to one of the most well-known choral works of the late 20th century, "Pilgrims' Hymn," which has been performed thousands of times around the world. Conducted by Matthew Culloton, this oratorio-style performance features many of the instrumentalists who premiered the work 20 years ago as well as guest singers who have been part the HOH music program over the years. This will be the fourth presentation of this opera at HOH. Watch for more information in the July/August edition of The Anchor about complimentary tickets.

Noyes Memorial Carillon Centennial (1923-2023)

The 2023 Summer Carillon Recital Series will begin as always with a festal flourish on Tuesday, July 4 and continue weekly, this special celebratory summer, for two months on Sundays, July 9 through August 27. The series commemorates the carillon's original dedication in 1923.

Guest artists from Europe and North America will join HOH Music Associate Tim Short and Carillonneur Dave Johnson. Their performances will feature music of virtually infinite description, ranging in time from 17th Century to present, in mood from serious to comic, in concept from whimsy to magnificent; in tone from popular through spiritual to classical, and in form from transcriptions of every description to original works for the instrument.

From its beginning as a modest, unremarkable, two-octave instrument in November 1923 to today's magnificent four-octave, 49-bell instrument, the Noyes Memorial Carillon has inspired legions of listeners and brought untold numbers of carillon devotees old and new into its fold.

All recitals begin at 4 p.m. Details will follow in the July Anchor.
