

THE HOUSE OF HOPE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"Christians are intentionally made by an adventuresome church."

—Stanley Hauerwas & William Willimon

Installation of The Rev. Dr. E. Scott Jones | October 19, 2025 10 a.m.

Welcome!

We are delighted you have joined House of Hope for worship.

Our open and affirming, caring active community welcomes people of all ages & backgrounds.

House of Hope Mission Statement:

Building a loving community for all, House of Hope shares God's grace and presence through music, the arts, reflection, and action. Come join us as we walk through life together.

Our regular Sunday Worship time is 10 a.m., followed by refreshments, social hour, and educational opportunities. If you have any questions, our ushers will be glad to help you.

We invite you to join us for refreshments, today served in the Kirk Parlour following the service.

Sunday Morning Family Resources:

- Worship: Following the Time for Children, children are invited to stay in the service with their guardians, or walk out with their guardians to be led to the Chapel. Caregivers should come to the Chapel immediately after the service to pick up their children.
- Worship bags are available in the Narthex with age-appropriate materials to help kids focus as they worship alongside their families. You can ask an usher to help you find the best bag for you!
- A Wiggle Space for children needing a little more scope to move is available in the sanctuary entrance way during the service. There are books and toys there for your use. Feel free to come in and out of the Sanctuary as needed.
- A variety of children's Bibles are located in the church pews.
- Our Nursery is open for infants – toddlers. A parent/guardian must sign children in and out of the nursery. Bring a photo ID with you.
- Nursing: At House of Hope, parents are welcome to nurse their children wherever they feel comfortable. Feel free to ask an usher if you would feel more comfortable in a more private area.
- Need help? Ask an usher or Children and Family Ministry staff any time!

All are invited today to a reception to greet Rev. E. Scott Jones in the Kirk Parlour following the service. There is no enrichment program.

Next Enrichment Hour: Sunday, October 26 - Panel Discussion on "No Kings"

Dr. Jimmy Hoke recently had an article published in Presbyterian Outlook entitled 'No Kings' should include Jesus in which he encouraged progressive Christians to think of Jesus beyond kingship as part of a democratic movement. Julia Carlson has long used the word "kin-dom" instead of "kingdom" in her prayers. And Scott Jones this summer preached on the political implications of kingdom language. These three staff members will engage in an open discussion of these topics during Adult Enrichment on Reformation Sunday.

+Call to Worship (Congregation reads the text in bold)

Rev. Phillip J. Romine

We celebrate the Holy One whose steadfast love sustains us.

Come and see what God has done!

+Prayer of Confession

Grace-filled God, we confess that we pursue our own needs, neglecting the needs of others. We pursue our own desires, while slowly destroying the gifts of your creation. We deflect the call to ministry, ignoring the cries of those in need. We are drawn to proclaim the gospel, yet live it out only at our convenience. Have mercy on us, O God. Open our eyes to the truth of the gospel that, whatever the time or wherever we are, we may fully embody your love and justice for all the world.

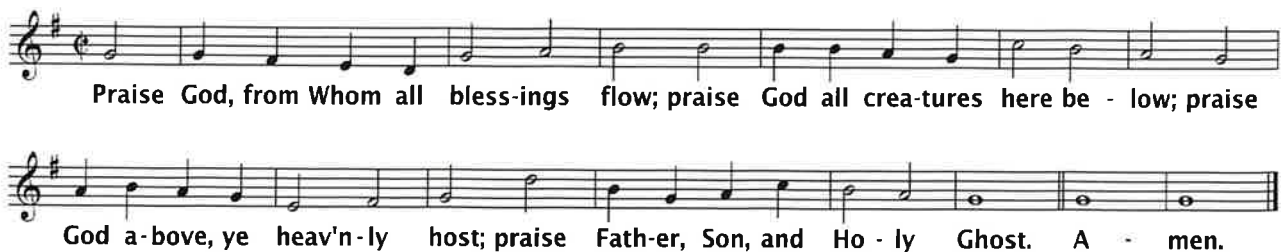

+Assurance of Forgiveness

Friends, believe the good news of the gospel.

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

+The Peace (The Peace of the Lord is shared with those around you.)

THE RESPONSE TO GOD

+ Hymn 419

How Clear Is Our Vocation, Lord

REPTON

+ Affirmation of Faith — Adapted from the Confession of 1967

Rev. Dr. Julia A. Carlson

The life, death, resurrection, and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the church's mission. His human life involves the church in the common life of all people. His service to all people commits the church to work for every form of human well-being. His suffering makes the church sensitive to all human suffering so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need. His crucifixion discloses to the church God's judgment on the inhumanity that marks human relations, and the awful consequences of the church's own complicity in injustice. In the power of the risen Christ and the hope of his coming, the church sees the promise of God's renewal of human life in society and of God's victory over all wrong. The church follows this pattern in the form of its life and in the method of its action. So to live and serve is to confess Christ as Lord.

(Minister and Elders are invited forward for the laying on of hands)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily, bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

About today's guest preacher:

The Rev. Darrell L. Goodwin is the first Executive Conference Minister of the Southern New England Conference of the United Church of Christ. A Chicago native, he serves as chief vision keeper for the Conference, guiding churches and ministries to make a lasting impact in the world. He previously served as Associate Conference Minister for the Iowa, Nebraska, and South Dakota Conferences and directed the Pension Boards' Faith and Personal Finance Initiative, a $1 million Lilly Endowment-funded program supporting clergy from historically underrepresented groups. With over 20 years of ministry experience, Rev. Goodwin has led churches, campus ministries, and student affairs departments in both Protestant and Catholic settings. He holds degrees from Boston College, the University of Vermont, and Seattle University, and is currently completing his Doctor of Ministry at San Francisco Theological Seminary. Known for his dynamic leadership and deep commitment to justice and inclusion, he is also an avid dinner host and bridge-builder across communities.
